

SUE COUTTS

Sue has over 20 years of practical experience running resource recovery centres and education programmes. She was the general manager of Wanaka Wastebusters and a founding trustee of the Sustainable Wanaka Charitable Trust and the Zero Waste Network. After many years on the board of Zero Waste Network, she now works in an external relations role to influence the sector through relationships with the government, commercial and community sectors. Sue has been a passionate and active contributor to the sector and to WasteMINZ throughout all this time. She has regularly presented at conferences, written articles for Revolve, and worked with WasteMINZ members to move our focus up the waste hierarchy.
